Called Into Service

Sixth week in the series 'Immortal. Invisible."

Acts 13:1-3

Our vision of "future truth" and "things unseen" can lead to withdrawal from the broken world around us. In fact, because we serve a greater king we are free to serve those who pursue only the rewards of this life. Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." It is a privilege to discover the gifts and calling that have been prepared for each one of us.

Discussion Questions:

1. We are called to love our neighbors for Jesus' sake in both word and deed. Which comes more readily to you—loving actions or loving speech?

2. We are called to love our enemies for Jesus' sake as well. Love can seem like a weak alternative to combative confrontation. Can you relate an experience of perfect love casting out fear?

3. What gifts has God given you to equip you to serve others?
