Steady Sexuality

5th week in the series 'Between the Times.'

1 Thessalonians 4:1-8

After talking about the value of friendships in the previous section, Paul moves on to a discussion of sexuality. He helps us to live in between the times with our sexuality. Far from just telling us what not to do, Paul gives us a compelling vision of living out our sexuality as we follow Jesus. In a world that is so confused about sex, these words help us to express a steady sexuality.

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you approach the topic of sexuality with some background of shame?
How you can work through those feelings and find healing?
2. What are some of the strongest messages regarding sexuality in our culture?
Which ones are you most tempted to believe?
3. How would practicing steady sexuality help you to live out your sexuality in a way that honors God in your life stage?
4. Are you tempted to believe that sexual choices don't hurt other people? Who have you seen be hurt by someone else's sexual choices?
