Passing the Torch

40th week in the series "A Life of Passion: The Story of David."

1 Kings 1:1–2:12

The depiction of David in 1 Kings makes us think that he was depressed. He doesn't seem to have anything left. Can anything snap David out of it? If we're concerned about personal decline, or even if we're simply in a funk, can anything snap us out of it?

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you think the world has changed and is changing for the better? How do you think the world has changed and is changing for the worse?
2. In the ways in which you think the world has changed and is changing for the worse, what do you think you can do about it?
3. Nathan and Bathsheba snapped David out of his funk. Is there anything that they said to him that resonates with you and your current outlook?
4. A vision for the next generation snapped David out of his funk. How do you think a vision for the next generation could influence you?
5. How do you think you might go about investing in the next generation?
