Called to Life

Second week in the series: Kingdom Work

Genesis 39-41; Colossians 3

Not many of us have had a “burning bush” moment – a moment where God was so clear about what he was calling you to do that there was no mistaking it. So then, how do you discern your calling? This week, we will discover that calling is less about the “burning bush” moments and more about everyday life.

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you define calling?
2. What do you consider your calling to be?
 - a. How did you discover that?
3. Read Colossians 3:12-17. How might you seek to “do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,” even when aspects of your daily life don’t feel like your they are part of your calling?
4. In your own words, what do you consider God’s primary calling for us as believers? Passage to consider Ephesians 3:14-21
