Eighth week in the series: Kingdom Work

Matthew 11:25-30

Life simply doesn't follow a straight line. Where do we find God in our vocational disruption?

Discussion Questions:

1. What thing(s) can you identify as your vocational disruption?
2. How do you see Matthew 11:25-27 fitting into 28-30?
3. How could you reframe questions about your own disruption?
4. Where/how do you find the presence of God? How can you return there?
5. Are you holding onto something that's heavy and ill-fitting versus what brings you wholeness? How could you lay that down and take up a lighter load?
