The Journey of God's Glory

Fourth week in the series: Knowing the God of Justice and Hope

Ezekiel 8-11

Some contend that the God who is depicted in the Scriptures is an angry, wrath-filled deity and therefore should not be believed in. Well, we do have to come to terms with the wrath of God, don't we? Ezekiel helps us do just that in Ezekiel 8-11.

Discussion Questions:

1. What sort of thoughts and feelings do you have about the concept of the "wrath of God"?
2. How do you react to these words from Jesus, concerning Jerusalem, which would crucify him? "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you desolate." (Matthew 23:37-38)
3. How do you react to the tears of Jesus, as seen in this passage? "And when he drew near and saw the city, he wept over it, saying, 'Would that you, even you, had known on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. For the days will come upon you, when your enemies will set up a barricade around you and surround you and hem you in on every side and tear you down to the ground, you and your children within you. And they will not leave one stone upon another in you, because you did not know the time of your visitation.'" (Luke 19:41-44)
