The Reformation

Ephesians 2:8-9

Emerging from the Protestant Reformation, which began five hundred years ago, on Oct. 31, 1517, were what came to be known as “the three solas”:

Sola scriptura: “By Scripture alone.”

Sola gratia: “By grace alone.”

Sola fida: “By faith alone.”

What are the implications of the “the three solas” for today?

Discussion Questions:

1. What has been your experience with the Scriptures, particularly the authority of the Scriptures?
2. What has been your experience with the grace of God—that is the gift of salvation, which features relationship with God?
3. What has been your experience with faith in Christ—that is, receiving the gift of salvation, which features relationship with God?
