

For the week of January 7, 2018
Preacher: Scott Grant

Expository Preaching

First week in the series: PBC DNA – Why we do what we do

John 5:39

Why do we preach the way we do at PBC? It has to do, first of all, with the way the Scriptures were given to us: Stories, poems, and letters breathed out by God so that we may know and follow him.

Discussion Questions:

1. Paul says that the Scriptures contain “the wisdom of God,” “the thoughts of God,” “the depths of God,” and “the mind of Christ” (1 Corinthians 2:6-16). How have you found this to be true?
2. How have the Scriptures spoken truth into your life? How have they both comforted you and challenged you?
3. Describe how you have been affected, for good or for ill or for indifference, by sermons?
4. To what extent do you think your mind has been renewed through sermons? Describe this experience.
5. To what extent do you think you have been equipped to follow the Lord through sermons? Describe this experience.
6. At its best, a sermon sets the stage for the Spirit to work. What else has God used in your life to help you know and follow the Lord?
