Infinite Joy

Eighth week in the series: The Final Hours

Matthew 28:1-10

The common proclamation at worship services around the world on Easter Sunday is “He is risen!” Is it true? And if it is true, why does it matter?

Discussion Questions:

1. Why do you or don't you believe that Jesus of Nazareth rose from the dead?
2. The two women felt an earthquake and they saw an angel. The kingdom of God rocks our world from time to time and catches us unaware. How do you think the kingdom of God has rocked your world?
3. How do you respond to this quote from C.S. Lewis? “We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.”
4. What do you think Jesus would say to you if you met him face to face?
5. What do you think your reaction would be if Jesus met you and said, “Greetings!”
