Preacher: Scott Grant

Wisdom Cries Out

First week in the series: Choose Wisely

Proverbs 1

If you have to live with your mind your whole life, what will you do with it? What will you expose it to? What will you fix it on, if you fix it on anything? This summer, we're going to study the book of Proverbs. If we fix our minds on the book of Proverbs, it will help us live with our minds in a life-enhancing way.

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you feel about receiving instruction from the Scriptures? (Proverbs 1:1-6)
2. How have you—and how might you—receive and incorporate instruction from the Scriptures? (Proverbs 1:1-6)
3. How might you go about nurturing your relationship with the Lord (“fear of the Lord”) so that you might think and act with more wisdom? (Proverbs 1:7, 9:10)
4. How do the consequences for not listening to biblical instruction influence you? (Proverbs 1:10, 15-18, 19-32)
5. How the rewards for listening to biblical instruction influence you? (Proverbs 1:8-10, 20-21, 33)
