Falling, Broken Dreams, and Hope

Sixth week in the series: Choose Wisely

Proverbs 24:15-20

We all accept with gratitude when following God leads to a present deliverance or success. But what happens when following God leads to the opposite experience? The themes of falling and broken dreams intersect with righteousness and hope in Proverbs 24:15-20. Following Christ is more than doing, as it seeks a depth of heart change and eternal hopefulness.

Discussion Questions:

1. Can you think of any New Testament passages where falling, and or failure is a part of a Christian's journey?
2. Can you think of a dream that you had for your life that was never fulfilled? How can Christ help us in these times?
3. Can you think of New Testament passages that teach of the importance of an eternal hope in Christ in our lives?
