Preacher: Scott Grant

Open Door

Eighth week in the series: *Wake Up

Revelation 3:7-13

It seems that many doors close in our face: educational doors, vocational doors, relational doors. How can we respond when doors close in our face?

Discussion Questions:

1. What sort of doors have been closed to you—educational doors, relational doors, vocational doors?
2. How do you resonate with the church of Philadelphia, which had “little power”—that is, little earthly power to change things.
3. Consider that though some doors may be closed to you, the door into the throne room of God, the very presence of God, is open to believers in Jesus. How does this encourage you?
4. Obsessing over the doors that have been closed to us can hinder us from noticing the doors that have been opened to us? What doors has God opened for you—educational doors, relational doors, vocational doors?
5. A believer one day will be a pillar in the temple of God. Jesus will write on him or her the name of God, the name of the new Jerusalem, and his own new name. How do these images encourage you?
