Preacher: Paul Taylor

Worthy to Redeem

Eleventh week in the series: Wake Up

Revelation 5:1-14

After entering the heavenly throne room in chapter 4, we witness the dramatic entrance of the Lion of Judah. After a moment when it seems no one will be able to restore God's rule over his creation, Jesus appears. He is the only one worthy to redeem what has been broken. As that realization sinks in the praise begins. And grows. And grows.

Discussion Questions:

1. What part of the brokenness of the world do you weep for most often?
2. Do you remember a time when you thought no one would be able to fix what was broken?
3. How do you react to the idea that Jesus will restore our ability to reign over God's creation?
4. What makes Jesus uniquely qualified to open the scroll in this chapter?
5. What holds you back from experiencing this kind of expansive praise of Jesus?
