Preacher: Dan Westman

Treasuring Jesus

Second week of Advent

Luke 10:38-42

The Christmas season brings with it a million different things that need to be done, but sometimes all of this “doing” gets in the way of what is really important — being with the One who came to be with us. The story of Mary and Martha gives us a much-needed reminder of the value of sitting at Jesus’ feet as his disciples.

Discussion Questions:

1. Are you more eager to do things for God or with him?
2. What things in life (good or bad) distract you from following Jesus?
3. Do you find yourself more eager to speak to God or listen to him? In your relationship with God, how could you improve your listening skills?
4. If someone were to audit your life, would they conclude that Jesus is the “one necessary thing” for you? How would your life change if you truly believed that being a disciple of Jesus was the most important thing in life?
