Preacher: Scott Grant

Here For a Reason

16th week in the series: Wake Up

Revelation 11

Do you too have the sense that you're supposed to be here—that you're here for a reason? If so, Revelation 11 confirms your suspicions.

Discussion Questions:

1. How would you describe your experience of life as bittersweet? What's been bitter? What's been sweet?
2. How do you think God may be calling you to speak for him?
3. The fact that you're alive means that God has protected you from death up to this point? How do you think this knowledge could influence you?
4. If God has protected you from death, that means you're here for a reason. What reason or reasons do you think you're here for?
5. How do you think the church could be a witness for Jesus in the Silicon Valley?
