Breakthrough

Ninth week in the series: Songs of the Soul

Psalm 103

Do you ever feel stuck in your relationship with God? The solution may not be as difficult as you fear. In Psalm 103, we are invited to sing the song of a soul that has been radically transformed by the love of God and to experience our own transformation as we learn to sing this song ourselves.

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever felt stalled or stuck in your relationship with God? Do you feel that way now?
2. What are the “benefits” that you have received from the Lord? How might you remind yourself to regularly praise the Lord for these things?
3. Have you experienced the gentleness, patience, and steadfast love of the Lord in the depth of your sin? How did this experience affect your relationship with God?
4. In Psalm 103, the steadfast love of the Lord overwhelms the psalmist and drives him to worship. Does your worship of God reflect the incredible love and grace that he has shown you in Jesus?
