Preacher: Scott Grant

God Will See

Eleventh week in the series: Blessed Are

Matthew 6:1-4

Most of us eventually learn from experience that living for the praise of others is full of traps. How do we escape the traps? If we're not to live for the praise of others, what are we to live for?

Discussion Questions:

1. Describe your experience with craving, or not craving, the praise of others.
2. If you have had the experience of craving the praise of others, how do you think that has affected the way you have lived?
3. How does it affect you to know that your Father "sees in secret"?
4. What do you think would help us live for the praise of the Father instead of the praise of others?
