God's Got This

16th week in the series: Blessed Are
Matthew 7:1-6

Who among us, because God seems so hands off, hasn't tried to impose our will on the world? Jesus shows us some of the ways in which we attempt to impose our will on the world while at the same time showing us a better way.

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you feel about this statement: "God is in control"?
2. In what specific ways do you think we may try to impose our will on the world?
3. What do you think motivates us to judge (condemn) other people?
4. What do you think motivates to force good things on unreceptive people?
5. Jesus asks the question, "Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?" Assuming that Jesus is asking you the question, how would you answer it?
