

For the week of January 26, 2019
Preacher: Paul Taylor

One True Voice

19th week in the series: Blessed Are
Matthew 7:15-23

As Jesus nears the end of the sermon on the mount, his words get more personally challenging. In this passage, he warns his listeners about two kinds of deception. Those would deceive others and those who deceive themselves. We must take his warning seriously and consider what it looks like to know Jesus as king.

Discussion Questions:

1. What voices do you listen to?
2. What "easy answers" are tempting for you to listen to?
3. What kind of fruit do you look for in people's lives?
4. What is the difference between doing and saying the right things and really knowing Jesus?
5. What practices have been most helpful in your own journey of knowing and following Jesus?
