Matthew 7:24-27

None of us knows the future. Would you like to be prepared for it, whatever it holds? In Matthew 7:24-27, Jesus tells us what to do in order to be ready for the future.

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you think we can go about hearing the words of Jesus in the gospels accurately?
2. How do you think we can go about hearing the words of Jesus in a way that transforms us?
3. How do you think you might go about “doing” the words of Jesus? What do you think can help us do the words?
4. How do you think hearing and doing the words of Jesus in the present can prepare you for difficulties in the future?
