Preacher: Paul Taylor

Worshiping in the Chaos

Sixth week in the series: Shattered

Job 40-42

At the end of the book of Job, we hear God's second speech, Job's final response, and the resolution to Job's circumstances. We get a bigger picture of the complexity of the cosmos. God makes it clear that chaos still exists within his creation. But he assures Job that he contends with the chaos. As Job sees that and encounters God, he worships. As we seek God in our own suffering, Job's path can be a guide to us for how to worship him in the chaos of our world.

Discussion Questions:

1. What examples of chaos are there in our world?
2. Read the passages describing the Behemoth and Leviathan. How do you naturally respond to them?
3. What does it mean to you that "God contends with the chaos"?
4. What stands out to you about Job's response?
5. How have you encountered God in the past?
6. How does hope help you in the midst of suffering?
