Living In Unity

Fifth week in the series: One Kingdom Indivisible
Various Passages

In our fifth week of the One Kingdom Indivisible series we arrive at the era of the church. This is the story of the kingdom of God that we are living out: followers of Jesus, united in Him, living out their faith within an earthly political realm. When we understand our identity as the church, we know better how to treat each other and how to relate to the world. We live out the life of Christ: loving each other and paying special attention to the "least of these."

Discussion Questions:

1. What stories do people tell about the church—correct or incorrect?
2. How have you seen power in the church cause problems?
3. Why do Christians sometimes forget to act like Christ toward each other when discussing difficult topics?
4. Who can you make an intentional point to listen to this week?
5. How can the church speak up for the "least of these"?
6. What examples have you seen of people laying down their lives for "the least of these?"
